INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY EVENT 2017

Friday 3 March 5 - 7pm
The Briscoe Building
485 - 501 Wattle Street, Ultimo

This event will include an update on the IEU Women's Committee agenda for 2017 and a discussion with our guest speaker Emma Husar MP Federal Member for Lindsay.

It offers an opportunity to reflect and celebrate women's achievements ahead of International Women's Day on March 8. Undoubtedly, Emma Husar will inspire you.

Emma Husar has been the member for Lindsay in the Australian House of Representatives since winning the seat in the 2016 federal election. To mark White Ribbon Day in 2016 Emma courageously delivered a speech in parliament about living with domestic violence over a long period of her childhood and adult life. In doing so she hoped to lend her support to women and children living with domestic violence and to advocate for change. Emma has three children.
